◆ Savour the enigmatic and alluring flavours of Morocco at the Novotel Al Dana Resort's Al Yacout restaurant

Moroccan food at its best

Where does one go to enjoy quality Moroccan dining? Diners who want to indulge in a beautiful and indigenous atmosphere, savour delicious authentic dishes and enjoy decent traditional live entertainment can just take a quick drive to Manama.

The Al Yacout restaurant at the Novotel Al Dana Resort offers the exotic pleasures of fragrant and tasty Moroccan food, concocted by native specialised chefs, served in exemplary Moroccan fashion.

Al Yacout offers a spectacular theatrical dining venue with an exciting and alluring live entertainment programme that includes performances by Gnawa musicians, local singer Faraj, Brazilian belly dancer Christina and Moroccan singer Jamila.

An experienced Moroccan pianist, who has been flown in directly from mystical Marrakech, Morocco's capital, adds enticing accompaniment to each of the performances to ensure that patrons enjoy a truly uplifting experience.

The 80-seat fine dining venue will take guests to the land of mystery where they can enjoy striking indigenous flavours and delicious Moroccan delights.

The Moroccan chefs at Al Yacout have a great passion for food and guests can expect the best dishes from one of the world's most enigmatic regions, all cooked using the finest and freshest ingredients to achieve authenticity.

The interior and décor resemble a modernised Kasbah with a touch of contemporary art, combined with a spectacular sound and lighting system, resulting in an intimate and cosy atmosphere.

Quite simply, the Al Yacout is the perfect place to enjoy a taste of intricate art.

The restaurant is ready to delight guests for dinner from 8pm to 2am from Sunday to Fridays and remains closed on Saturdays.
